There are so many myths about grief like, "time heals all wounds". Time may make the pain soften, but the loss will always be there. It isn't easy to just let go and move on, especially when you haven't been given the tools needed to do so. Allow Michelle to navigate the waters of grief and receive the support and guidance needed to continue living your life in the best way possible.

A Blue Christmas offers support to anyone in our community who is grieving this holiday season. It provides an opportunity to acknowledge grief and loss during this normally festive time.

- It offers a safe space to remember loved ones who have passed, and any other loss as some losses are not due to death.
- It provides an opportunity to recognize sadness, disappointment, loneliness or fear.
- It provides a refuge of sorts, and an awareness that you are not alone in your grief. Others are hurting too.
- Blue Christmas is about making room for the sadness and hurt that is already there. Naming it. Honouring it.

THIS PERIOD WAS ALSO MARKED BY THE INCEPTION OF PROJECT TIGER, A SIGNIFICANT CONSERVATION EFFORT, ON 1ST APRIL 1973. THE TIGER, REFERRED TO AS THE LORD OF THE JUNGLE, IS NOT MERELY A SYMBOL OF INDIA'S RICH AND DIVERSE WILDLIFE BUT ALSO AN EMBODIMENT OF STRENGTH, POWER, AND AGILITY-TRAITS THAT RESONATE WITH THE SPIRIT OF INDIA.
